When should this authorization expire?

____/____/____ OR _____
Fill in expiration date OR an event that relates to the individual or the purpose of this release, such as "At end of treatment."

- You have the right to revoke this authorization, in writing, at any time by sending such written notification to the office address. However, your revocation will not be effective to the extent that PCPC has taken action in reliance on the authorization or if this authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage and the insurer has a legal right to contest a claim.
- I understand that my therapist generally may not condition psychological services upon my signing an authorization unless the psychological services are provided to me for the purpose of creating health information for a third party.
- If the authorization is signed by a personal representative of the patient, a description of such representative's authority to act for the patient must be provided.
- I understand that information used or disclosed pursuant to the authorization may be subject to redisclosure by the recipient of my information and no longer protected by the HIPAA Privacy Rule.
- However, any disclosure of information that pertains to the treatment or diagnosis of drug abuse or alcohol abuse or a referral for such treatment or diagnosis, and which would identify a patient as an alcohol or drug abuser, permitted hereunder shall be accompanied by the following written statement: "This information has been disclosed to you from records protected by Federal confidentiality rules (42 CFR part 2). The Federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by the written consent of the person to whom it pertains or as otherwise permitted by 42 CFR part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. The Federal rules restrict any use of the information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse patient."
- Any facsimile, copy, or photocopy of this authorization shall have the same effect of the original.
